

Stats on Automotive Digest in August 2016

The Situation with this Chart:

Automotive Startups are providing innovative solutions and technology to the automotive industry. Automotive Digest is covering their progress.

Lux Capital (Lux Partners) & CB Insights are creating market research content and providing funding to and for an astounding number of startup companies including some in automotive and autonomous vehicles.

One of the Lux Partners is Shahin Farshchi (@farschi). He says startups will bring solutions to all the challenges associated with autonomous cars and highlights the driverless race with this graphic from CB Insights on big auto tech partnerships, investments, and acquisitions.
